

William Anders

Bill Anders has been a medical device Compliance professional for over seventeen years, first with Smith & Nephew and now with Medtronic, including work related to three Corporate Integrity Agreements and a Deferred Prosecution Agreement. As a compliance professional, his responsibilities have included auditing/monitoring, risk assessment, investigations, training/communications, policy governance and business partnering. Prior to his time in medical device Compliance, Bill worked in the pharmaceutical sector for Accredo Health where he worked in insurance billing and patient advocacy for specialty injectable therapies.