

William L. Aprea, Esq

William L. ("Bill") Aprea, Esq. Bill Aprea serves as the VP, Head of Healthcare Compliance at Phathom Pharmaceuticals, a late clinical-stage biopharma company committed to improving the lives of patients suffering from acid-related gastrointestinal (GI) disorders. His experience as an attorney within the biopharma industry spans almost 20 years with positions at multiple international innovator companies. Prior to joining Phathom, Bill served as Executive Director, Senior Franchise and Compliance Counsel at Celgene Corporation (acquired by Bristol-Myers Squibb in 2019). Bill's experience in industry is focused on managing legal support for the development and commercialization of biopharma products and building effective and fit-for-purpose compliance teams and programs. His expertise includes FDA laws, regulations and guidance, anti-bribery and fraud and abuse and other laws, industry codes and guidelines. He began his career as a corporate and securities attorney in private law firm practice. He is a 1999 graduate of Rutgers School of Law in Newark, NJ.