

Rich Bagger, JD

Rich Bagger is a Partner and Executive Director of Christie 55 Solutions. He previously served as Executive Vice President of Corporate Affairs and Market Access for Celgene Corporation, with responsibility for communications, patient advocacy, government relations and policy, market access, global health, and corporate responsibility. Before joining Celgene, Rich was Chief of Staff for New Jersey Governor Chris Christie, managing implementation of the Governor's policy agenda and priorities. Rich's public service also includes more than a decade in the New Jersey Senate and Assembly, where he was Chair of the Appropriations Committee and Majority Conference Leader. Previously, Rich was employed by Pfizer Inc. in a series of positions of increasing responsibility within the company's U.S. Pharmaceuticals, Corporate Affairs and Worldwide Pharmaceuticals Divisions. Rich currently serves on the Board of Directors of Tonix Pharmaceuticals, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. He also teaches at the Rutgers University Eagleton Institute of Politics. Rich received an A.B. degree from the Princeton University School of Public and International Affairs and a J.D. degree from Rutgers University Law School.