

Clarissa Crain

Clarissa is a Managing Director within Deloitte's Compliance and Regulatory risk practice. For over 20 years, Clarissa has advised life science companies on compliance, corporate governance, legal, regulatory, and government pricing matters. Specific to patient engagement, Clarissa works with clients on program design and management to strike the balance of patient need with regulatory requirements. She has worked with manufacturers who have been subject to regulatory inquiry and scrutiny in this area, as well as organizations seeking to proactively evaluate and enhance their programs and controls. Before joining Deloitte, Clarissa led the advisory services of a boutique life science compliance, pricing and contracting firm for 9 years.
