

Judith Haron, JD

Judy Haron is Assistant General Counsel at PhRMA, focusing on Medicare Part D. Before joining PhRMA in June of 2022, she spent more than 20 years in the Federal Government working for HHS's Office of the General Counsel (OGC), in both the CMS Division and the Children, Families, and Aging Division (CFAD), acting as Chief Counsel from 2018-2022. At CFAD, she advised on HHS' human services grant programs, including the Administration for Children and Families and the Administration for Community Living. In the CMS Division, she worked as the special assistant to the Chief Counsel and as a senior attorney, focusing on hospital inpatient payment, Medicare Part D, electronic health records, Medicaid eligibility, and immigrant eligibility under PRWORA. Prior to joining HHS OGC, Judy worked in the Office of Legislation for CMS (then known as HCFA), for Vinson & Elkins' health care law practice, and as a judicial law clerk on the Court of Federal Claims. She is a graduate of Harvard Law School.
