

Mike Haughney

Mike Haughney is Director, Global Compliance Monitoring and Analytics at Bristol Myers Squibb, where he oversees the responsible AI compliance program. He previously held compliance auditing, monitoring, and data analytics roles at Novartis and Sun Pharma. Mike has extensive experience executing CIA and risk-based auditing and monitoring programs. He has also advised on a variety of health care compliance matters. He holds a JD from Rutgers University and a bachelor's in business management from Penn State University. Mike resides in Pennsylvania with his wife and two daughters.